

earthday

WESTCHESTER 2009

brought to you by Westchester County Government

a celebration of green, sustainable living

Sunday, April 19, 2009

Kensico Dam Plaza, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Rain or shine

- Live music and entertainment with Annie and the Natural Wonder Band and Solar Punch
- First 50 families receive a FREE “Earth Machine” composting bin
- FREE “Green Raffle” for valuable prizes like a home energy audit, 30-day unlimited-ride MetroCards, and lots more...
- Lawn and gardening Q&A with Cornell Cooperative Extension of Westchester County
- Westchester County Sustainability/Recycling Awards & Prizes
- Enjoy fresh, local produce at the Earth Day Farmers Market
- First 500 families get a FREE reusable shopping bag.
- “Green” Exhibit offers lots of practical ways to make your home, school and business more energy efficient and sustainable
- Alternative Fuel Vehicles Exhibit – hybrid cars, trucks, bus & Westchester’s “Veggie Van”

Westchester
gov.com

Nationally Accredited
PARKS
WESTCHESTER COUNTY

FRIENDS OF WESTCHESTER COUNTY PARKS

Free admission & parking. Walk, cycle, Metro North or carpool. Held in cooperation with the Westchester Climate Change Advisory Council. Co-sponsored by Wheelabrator Westchester, LP, City Carting of Westchester, Malcolm Pirnie, Birdsall Services Group and Cornerstone Environmental Group, LLC. Call 211 for more information.

Kensico Dam Plaza is located at the north end of the Bronx River Parkway in Valhalla.

For information on “Pitch In for Parks” (also April 19), call (914) 864-7054.